

Never Again

Music and Lyrics by Andrew Heinrich

Michael's Drinking Song

I've sailed north to Ireland
I've sailed south to France
I'll sail to the New World
If you give half a chance
But brave as I might be
And bold as I am
I'll never go drinking
With Michael again!

Chorus:

I'll never, no never; no never amen
I'll never go drinking with Michael again!

Well the first night went lightly
No hurry at all
We drank Scottish whiskey
And had us a ball
But when we went roamin'
He gave us all wine
Not a glass or a bottle,
But a cask oh, so fine

Chorus

Well we drank seven barrels
Of Morcar's best stout
And ingested more 'shleager
Than I dare think about
Michael mixed Island beverage
He poured rum and coke
And it took lots of leverage
To get poor Torquil home

Chorus

Twas around o'drunk thirty when
Young Gauge left the scene
With a giggling young maiden
The Atlantian queen
We searched through the campsite
We searched high and low
Till we saw him come running
With 12 knights fast in tow

Chorus

Well my own story starts
With great joy and good cheer
We went out with Michael
We drank lots of beer
I met a fine maiden
I asked her to wed
But I wound up on Mike's porch
Instead of her bed

Chorus

Janvier Gentleman ladies man fine
He went out with Micheal
And had lots of wine
He went to take Rosa
To the king of the west
But it's hard to be charming
In a backwards suplex

Chorus

The stacking of bottles
Is Josceline's art
When she speaks oft of hist'ry
She sounds very smart
She'll roll on her belly
She'll roll on her hips
Keep your eyes on her eyes
Instead of her...

Chorus

This verse is censored,
I can't say a word
We went to Estrella,
Why, what have you heard?

Chorus

The morning is coming
And I may just be blind
And the song of the cruel birds
Is oh so unkind
As I see my companions
I've got just one thought –
That Jock looks damn strange
In the cardinal's cassock

Chorus x2
